Haly & Laura's Networking Event – “Professional Women In Transition”

Are you thinking about making a move in your career – or have you recently made a switch and have some insights to share? Then this networking event is for you! Come join us and meet other positive, professional women who know firsthand the challenges of career transition.

Haly and Laura are combining their networks to provide quality connections with positive women who want to grow their careers and make a difference for women in Milwaukee. Recruiters and other career professionals will also be attending.

Note: Be sure to bring your business cards! Yes, those in transition need cards!
